

David Kirby

Director of Operations

Dave Kirby is our new addition. His role with LCI is Director of Operations. In that role, Dave will work with our clients and potential clients to find ways to assist them with their needs in Litigation Support and Trial Coordination, with the core focus of giving our clients the service they need, in the most efficient manner. In development of client satisfaction and growth, he will look for cost saving solutions to bring unparalleled service to our clients, existing and new. Prior to joining LCI, Dave has amassed over 20 years of progressive experience in service to the clients under his care, always working in a service industry, and thus far over 9 years of his experience has been devoted to serving the litigation support industry. Joining LCI, Dave will continue his passion for this industry, and for the clients who count on him now, and who have trusted him over the years.

Prior to joining LCI, Dave had led Operations and Sales for 2 of the largest litigation support companies in existence, Merrill Corp, and Esquire Solutions. His background in staffing, telecommunications, and freight, aid him in understanding that industries that serve client needs on a just in time basis must be aware of what that actually means. Dave is a perfect fit with a successful track record of coming through for the customer, time and time again, exactly what LCI has accomplished and is known for with their clients.

Dave is a graduate of Marshall University in Huntington, WV, with a degree in Management, and a specialization in Economics. He resides in The Woodlands, TX, near our location in the Houston area, where he has lived for 6 years. He has worked in the legal industry in Texas for 8 of his 9 years in the litigation support industry.

Dave is a member of many local organizations in Texas, including Dallas Area Paralegal Association, Metroplex Corporate Paralegals Association, Capital Area Paralegal Association, Houston Metropolitan Paralegal Association, Houston Corporate Paralegal Association, Houston Association of Litigation Support Managers, Dallas Association of Young Lawyers, Hispanic Bar Association of Houston and Houston Young Lawyers Association. Dave has been invited to speak to the technology committees within major US firms to make recommendations on items to purchase in their upcoming budget. He has also been a speaker at Bar and Paralegal Functions in front of 50 to 150 attorneys or paralegals.
