

Steve Page

Senior Trial Consultant

Steve Page has worked in major downtown Dallas law firms. Being a self-described "jack of all trades", Steve has worked in litigation support, as a trial presentation specialist, trial consultant, web designer and as a videographer and video editor. His roles have had him creating custom presentations for trials, custom graphics for firm materials, editing and shooting videos of depositions as well as in-house presentations, and working extensively with digital document management. From pre-trial to the court room, Steve has experience in the complete litigation process.

Steve is also an award winning musician. His music has been played by the Dallas Stars, Dallas Mavericks, Dallas Burn, Oklahoma City Blazers, National Geographic, TLC, VH1 and nationally syndicated FM radio shows. He is a voting member of the Recording Academy, an award winning member of ASCAP, has six albums available online on over 52 different MP3 sites including Itunes and his music is in regular rotation on Sirius/XM radio, celestial radio and internet radio. Steve was up for 2 Grammy awards in 2008 and was up for 3 in 2009. Steve is an excellent customer service rep. You will enjoy working with Steve Page.
